

SEA SCOUT SHIP 25 August 2020

by Ben Ashbaugh, Yeoman

On The Water:

While the boating season remains open, scouts have been focusing on advancements that require being on the water. We have done on the water training including overnight adventures, one of which involved the Sensei mooring north of Sheldrake point. It was a great day and a gorgeous and calm night.

Service Projects:

The Ship participated in two services projects at the boathouse at Camp Barton where we straightened up and cleaned inside so the equipment could remain serviceable due to summer camp being cancelled this year.
