

Sea Scout Ship 25 February 2023

By Ship 25 Yeoman, Allyson Marion

Activities:

Ship 25 participated in a training event held in New Jersey last weekend. They learned various skills including leadership and knot-tying. Lectures were also given on marlinspike, the inner workings on how engines and electricity work, and other advancement materials.

Meetings:

The weekly meetings are held both in-person and via zoom at the Coast Guard Auxiliary Base in Ithaca. Kandersteg information meetings are also done in person and over zoom for those who live far away. Please check the calendar for any additional info.

Upcoming:

Next month the Kandersteg group has a meeting March 10th, so please check the calendar for further info. There is also a training event held by the University of Scouting on the eighteenth and a highway clean-up scheduled for the nineteenth. The Sea Scout Ball Fellowship and Ball is coming up!! (If you don't come for the party, come for the WaWa :P) Then to end the month we'll be holding the second Bridge of Honor for 2023 where scouts will be receiving various awards.

Fundraising:

Please bring your cans and bottles to the K&H Redemption Center at 900 West State Street in Ithaca and say they are for Sea Scout Ship 25; and watch for upcoming info on our Spring Chicken BBQ.

Contact:
